American Cruise Lines Presents Clambake Cruises

Clambakes are a festive New England tradition that have been part of joyous occasions along the New England shoreline for many generations. From lobsters and clams to fresh sweet corn, passengers can experience this tasty tradition on a 7-night Maine Coast & Harbors or New England Islands cruise this summer.

Along with the comfort and amenities aboard our brand new ships, passengers will enjoy visiting seven quaint ports of call, expertly planned shore excursions and the highly personalized service that is the hallmark of American Cruise Lines.

Four Clambake cruises have been planned for the 2009 season. Two departing from Bangor, Maine for the Maine Coast & Harbors itinerary on July 25th and August 1st and two departing from Providence, Rhode Island for the New England Islands on July 18th and August 15th.
