

Summer 2012

7 Night

Potomac & Tidewaters Cruise

May and June 2012

Departs from Philadelphia, PA
or Washington, DC

Discover the glorious cities and towns that helped to shape early American history including some which have served as our nation's capital. Your journey begins in Philadelphia, a city boasting centuries of political, economic, social, and cultural achievements and full of historical landmarks. Along the cruise you'll visit places such as St. Michaels, MD known as the 'town that fooled the British,' America's sailing capital, Annapolis, MD, and Mt. Vernon, VA the former plantation home of our first president, George Washington. With each port having its own unique history and culture, this cruise is sure to be the perfect way to explore the making of America as we know it today.
